a relationship with the finance minister of South Korea, and later allegedly claiming that the funds were tied up with a powerful international crime syndicate. The defendant allegedly represented that additional funds were necessary to avoid the torture and murder of the defendant's family and that of the alleged victim. At the detention hearing, the alleged victim proffered statements by the defendant that he would flee to South Korea if charges were filed against him.

- 2. The defendant has no visible means of support and essentially no employment history, despite the maintenance of a rather lavish lifestyle.
- 3. The defendant is a United States citizen. His wife is a Korean citizen and her immediate family resides in Korea. She reports daily contact with her family.
- 4. Pretrial Services recommends release on the passive Global Positioning Satellite However, this program would, at the most, show defendant's whereabouts in Program. retrospect, rather than contemporaneously. No program is currently available which would provide this information on a contemporaneous basis.
- Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to strong ties to Korea, lack of 5. employment or visible means of support, and alleged threats to leave the country. He poses a risk of danger due to the nature of the instant offense and alleged threats.
- 6. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 9th day of January, 2007.
